

Notice of Administrative Decision

Quokka Cove Out of School Hours Care

Service approval number: SE-40099001 Provider approval number: PR-00099017

Approved provider: Rottnest Community Services Incorporated

Address: 1 Thomson Bay Road, ROTTNEST, WA 6161

The Regulatory Authority has decided to issue a compliance direction to the approved provider under the Wildlife Care Services National Law.

Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. Survey effort for the quokka increased by 13 per cent on the previous year. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions.

The nominated supervisor, [name withheld], was informed of the decision on 25 August 2025.

The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2028. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. Field officers recorded [redacted] the reporting period.

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

Reasons for the decision

The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2028. Funding of $82.6 million supports quokka habitat restoration. The quokka (Setonix brachyurus) shelters in dense scrub across Rottnest Island and the south-west. Survey effort for the quokka increased by 31 per cent on the previous year.

The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Field officers recorded 26 quokka observations during the reporting period. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Field officers recorded 26 quokka observations during the reporting period.

Field officers recorded 132 quokka observations during the reporting period. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Funding of $30.0 million supports quokka habitat restoration.

Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Survey effort for the quokka increased by 29 per cent on the previous year. Funding of $87.8 million supports quokka habitat restoration.

Survey effort for the quokka increased by 13 per cent on the previous year. Community groups reported that quokka numbers were stable in TAS. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions.

Review rights

Community groups reported that quokka numbers were stable in WA. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Survey effort for the quokka increased by 20 per cent on the previous year.

Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. Community groups reported that quokka numbers were stable in NT.

The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2028. Funding of $85.3 million supports quokka habitat restoration. Survey effort for the quokka increased by 13 per cent on the previous year. Community groups reported that quokka numbers were stable in TAS.

Community groups reported that quokka numbers were stable in ACT. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2027. Funding of $39.8 million supports quokka habitat restoration. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions.

The quokka (Setonix brachyurus) shelters in dense scrub across Rottnest Island and the south-west. The department will review quokka monitoring protocols by 30 June 2026. Fencing, predator control and revegetation remain the main quokka recovery actions. The quokka (Setonix brachyurus) shelters in dense scrub across Rottnest Island and the south-west.